at Noon.

“Compulsory Arbitrations: A Guide to In Person and Virtual Proceedings CLE.”

Arbitration CLE Presenters:

Hon. Lesa S. Gelb – Intro to the Arbitration Program (when, where, how much paid, qualifications to be an arbitrator), value of the experience in serving on a panel

Lee Molitoris, Esq. – quick procedure for getting to arbitration, how to continue a case, consequences of no show, appeal, new videoconference notice and agreement to conduct arbitration hearing by videoconference.

Neil T. O'Donnell, Esq. – Do's and don'ts of arbitration and videoconference arbitration. Any advice or experiences with using videoconference for hearings/arbitration. (ex. Try to keep to 1 hour; exhibits and witnesses ready; try to have all witnesses in one room ready to go; have a good camera, computer and internet connection; have phone ready in case computer malfunction; have all exhibits on computer to share with arbitrators; etc.)..

John M. Hurtt, Esq. – Pa.R.C.P. 1305, arbitration relaxed rules of evidence and how you use to your advantage (focus on credit card cases).

The W-BLLA (#53) is now conditionally approved as a Distance Learning Provider.
This Program Provides 1 Hour of Substantive CLE Distance Learning Credit
