New PBI Book at the Law Library That Might Be of Interest to Members

The Law Library has a new book and a supplement book. It is on the new reporting requirements by entities under the Corporate Transparency Act (CTA).

This book and its supplement will be kept in the back in 23/Stack Room. To view or photocopy it, just ask Kristin or Gail. There is also a digital copy posted on the Westlaw research machine.

As W-BLLA Members may have an interest in learning more about the CTA and its reporting requirements, the W-BLLA is trying to set up a CLE on this topic. As soon as we have the information, an ad will be run in the Register.

The W-BLLA is also working to schedule three other CLEs. As soon as we have these dates locked in with those presenters, Joe Burke will advertise these in the Register as well.

In the meantime, if any member has a legal topic that you think might be of interest to the members of the W-BLLA, please e-mail Joe at or if there is a topic that you would like to present a CLE on to the members e-mail Joe and he will be happy to follow up with you.

Summer Outing 2024

This year's Summer Outing at the Fox Hill County Club in Exeter was a big hit! Honored at the Outing were Retiring Executive Committee Members Gertrude C. McGowan, Esquire, Neil T. O'Donnell, Esquire, and Paula L. Radick, Esquire.

The check for this year's Law School Scholarship was also presented at the Outing. This year's winner is Cassidy Crawford, who graduated from King's College, and who will be attending the Thomas R. Kline School of Law of Duquesne University.

Our $25,000.00 scholarship is broken into even amounts for each of the three years of law school.

Our Scholarship is administrated through the Luzerne Foundation as the W-BLLA is a 501(c)(6) members non-profit organization. While our Luzerne County Bar Association Charitable Foundation Inc. is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit foundation, $25,000 donated by the Bar to it would create a problem under the rules established by the IRS. This is why the Outing donations are designed to go directly to the Foundation and not to the W-BLLA to be in turn donated to the Foundation, and why the hole sponsorship checks are written and donated directly to the Foundation.

We do appreciate everyone's patience when we have to return checks that are accidentally made out to the W-BLLA that are for a hole sponsorship and then we have to ask you to have these made out instead payable to the Foundation.

Again, how much the Bar can directly donate to the Foundation is established by an IRS rule that governs nonprofits. So, the Association has to be very careful in this regard. Having the donation for the $25,000.00 scholarship run through the Luzerne Foundation is an enormous help to both our own Foundation and to the W-BLLA. Attorney Dave Pedri and his staff do an excellent job in helping us accomplish our goal of providing this money to a deserving Luzerne County student each year.

The Foundation is then free to raise money through private donations, and to, in turn, donate this money to area causes. It is also free to conduct fundraising such as it does at the Outing, where it utilizes donations from the Hole Sponsorships, sale of Mulligans, cigars, and basket raffle tickets. Again, all of these funds go directly from individuals to the Foundation, so as not to impair nor inhibit the annual donation that the W-BLLA directly makes to the Foundation each April in the amount of $10,000.00. All of the directly received individual funds helps to balance out this annual award. And to make giving this annual award possible.

So, our thanks to individuals attending the Outing and donating to the Foundation through basket raffle ticket sales, Mulligans, cigars, and Hole Sponsorships—plus the generous donation from FNCB Bank to the Foundation. From all of this, the Foundation this year managed to raise the phenomenal amount of $7,643.00.00 at the Outing.

A breakdown of the money raised, a thank you to our Hole Sponsors and basket raffle donators, and our outing volunteers—along with many more photos - will run in next week's issue. Please look for these!

The W-BLLA and the Luzerne County Bar Association Charitable Foundation Inc. want to thank you the Judges and lawyers who attended the Outing for helping to make the Outing this year one of the best Outings in the history of the Bar and one of the most successful fundraisers for the Foundation for the year.

THANK YOU!
