This is an opportunity for an attorney who wants to use their legal skills to make a meaningful difference in the lives of survivors while working collaboratively with advocates and community partners. The position serves program participants throughout Luzerne and Wyoming Counties.

What You'll Do

The CLR Staff Attorney will provide civil legal representation and advocacy in matters that may include:

- Establish and maintain a pro bono network of attorneys willing to represent domestic violence victims in Luzerne and Wyoming Counties.
- Participate in the Domestic Violence Attorney Network sponsored by PCADV.

- Litigate precedent-setting cases at the trial and appellate levels, including legal research, litigation strategy, and brief writing.

What We're Looking For
